Trust is a fundamental need for everyone, as doubt weakens confidence. Although trust may appear insignificant to some, it is the foundation of a strong government—one that thrives when its people have faith in their leaders. Trusting others is essential, even when it isn't easy. We are profoundly grateful to our friends who continue to trust and support us at Yayasan Perahu Nusantara and Kafe 1 Nusantara. Above all, we are thankful to the Creator for nurturing this trust within us, even when we feel undeserving.

We are grateful for the renewal of Yayasan Perahu Nusantara's legal status, allowing us to continue our work with positive impact on coastal communities. We also appreciate the volunteers who regularly join us at the foundation and the cafe, eager to learn and grow together. Our connections with other foundations in different regions have strengthened our network, fostering collaboration and mutual support.

Our eco-friendly cloth bag program at Pantai Air Manis has surpassed our initial goals, and we are now seeking donors to help sustain this initiative. As we prepare to open new locations for “Balai Bamain”, we ask for your prayers and support in meeting our needs. We are also actively searching for creative ideas to draw more customers to 1 Nusantara Cafe and welcome any suggestions or advice on where we can learn and enhance our creativity.

Allow us to express our heartfelt wishes for a meaningful Independence Day.

“Nusantara Baru, Indonesia Maju”

What makes a confident person? Some might think it means having all the necessary qualities: A healthy physique, economic stability, intelligence, charisma – the list goes on. But I've met people who seem to have 'everything,' yet they lack confidence. On the other hand, some young people exude confidence despite appearing like they 'don't have everything.' In my personal observation, those with low confidence often doubt their own abilities, while those with great confidence have received trust and support from others – whether from their parents, families, teachers, or friends.

Trust may seem trivial to some, but it is actually an important thing that is needed by everyone. A robust government is a government trusted by their people.

CENTRAL BUSINESS UNIT

We are very happy that the renewal of Yayasan Perahu Nusantara's legal status is now complete. We're eager to continue our work with renewed enthusiasm. Please keep supporting us as we move forward and plan for 2025, including the development of new "Balai Bamain" and the addition of new staff. We appreciate your prayers so that everything proceeds smoothly and that we can meet our funding needs for both routine and unexpected expenses.

On August 25th, our foundation's program team held the 'Kreasi Anak Nusantara' event. We are grateful to the 17 donors who contributed a total of Rp2,630,000 to support this activity. There are also 34 children from Balai Bamain Air Manis, Balai Bamain Nanggalo, and the English Club Kids of 1 Nusantara Cafe that participated. We were also pleased to see our trained volunteers actively involved in making this event a success

Since July, we've been hosting 'Financial Talk' sessions at Café 1 Nusantara, aiming to educate young people on financial literacy and investment. However, these sessions haven't attracted as much interest as our 'Sunset English Club' on Tuesdays or 'Salam Nusantara' on Saturday nights. We're now considering whether to continue this initiative or explore new ideas to boost visitor numbers and sales at Café 1 Nusantara

Entrepreneurship Training for Staff Every Thursday

For the staff at the café and the foundation, we provide weekly training sessions in addition to daily briefings. These sessions are designed to support their development, preparing them for their current roles and future opportunities, whether they continue with us or pursue their own ventures.

Thank you once again for all the support you have given and continue to offer. Best wishes and warm regards to everyone.

TIM PROGRAM

Orientation and Training for Prospective Volunteers

Earlier this month, we collaborated with one of YPN's volunteers, Tian, who conducted a survey to establish a new Balai Bamain. We are currently in the process of obtaining the necessary permissions from local stakeholders.

To celebrate Indonesia's 79th Independence Day, we organized the 'Kreasi Anak Nusantara', an event for the children of Balai Bamain and the English Club for Kids. The children showcased their talents by performing traditional dances, storytelling, and more. They also participated in eco-friendly activities, such as weaving fabric scraps into doormats. The event concluded with a painting session focused on the theme of Independence.

In today's world, education that instills true moral values and exemplary moral conduct is of immense importance. We hope the children will follow the good examples we nurtured

Volunteer Training: Being a Good Role Model

Volunteer training is essential for preparing prospective volunteers at Yayasan Perahu Nusantara (YPN) to effectively handle their responsibilities, especially when working with children at Balai Bamain. This training emphasizes the importance of being a role model for children and ensuring that every child has the right to be happy in their environment

The training consists of two sessions for each volunteer, covering three topics: Safeguarding, Praise and Encouragement, and Techniques for Engaging Storytelling. These sessions are generally attended by college students and jobholder. At the end of the training, we provide a commitment form for the volunteers who have completed the program, allowing them to participate in YPN's activities
